

Faculty of Human and Social Development
Award for Excellence in Teaching
Sessional Faculty Member
Terms of Reference

The Faculty of Human and Social Development (HSD) Award for Excellence in Teaching is offered annually to a sessional faculty member, or lab instructor who demonstrates the following:

- í X Excellence in teaching over a minimum of three years before the nomination X
- î X Educational leadership furthering the strategic priorities outlined in the HSD Strategic Plan 2022-26 Building on our Collective Strengths.
<https://www.uvic.ca/hsd/assets/docs/publications/finshsdstrategicplan20222026print23032022.pdf>

Eligibility

Nominees must be a full-time employee of the Faculty of Human and Social Development for a minimum of three years

Nomination Package

1 X Nomination Form (see attached)

1 X A 500 word (maximum) nomination statement prepared by the lead nominator highlighting the nominee's exceptional teaching or CE as it relates to the HSD strategic priorities for teaching and learning. Examples include W

x Teaching beyond the traditional campus boundaries including land or water-based learning

x Offering workshops for colleagues on innovative teaching or course design Illustrations of .04 T -0.088

Nomination Form

Faculty of Human and Social Development

Date submitted:

Award Nominee

Faculty Member (Full Name):

School/Program:

Email:

Phone:

Sessional Instructor (Full Name):

School/Program:

Email:

Phone:

Nominee's Academic Appointments and Employment History

Years	Position	Institution

Lead Nominator (Full Name):

School/Program:

Email:

Phone: (519) 276-5800 ext. 2100