

SESSIONAL INSTRUCTORS

The School of Child and Youth Care at the University of Victoria invites expressions of interest from individuals interested in sessional teaching in our undergraduate CYC programs on campus and through distributed learning. Courses are offered throughout the Winter (two terms: September-December, and January-April) and Summer (May-August).

- teaching the classroom sessions or through distance delivery (workshops, teleconferences, listserves, etc.)
  - consulting with students and being available to them through office hours, electronic
- 2012

Director's Office, School of Child and Youth Care
University of Victoria, HSD Building
PO Box 1700, Stn CSC, Victoria, BC V8W 2Y2
Contact: (250) 721-7980 or kwoodhou@uvic.ca

Decisions regarding applications will be made in July/August for Winter Session 1st term (September-December), in November/December for 2nd term (January-April), and March/April for Summer Session (May-August).

For further information on the CYC program and the School of Child and Youth Care please see our website at www.cyc.uvic.ca .

