

I love that I get to meet so many interesting people and am constantly hearing and learning new stories about our maritime heritage and culture! Museums are dynamic places to work so there's always something new to learn. Everyone involved in museums has a strong sense of curiosity and love for learning, so it's great to be around like minded people all working towards the same goals of heritage preservation and public engagement.

How did UVIC English help prepare you for this work?

The two main skills that I gained from my UVIC English degree are the ability to write and the ability to think critically. I would not be able to do this job without those skills.