

Lansdowne Lectures

University of Victoria's Lansdowne Lectures have served you since the 1920s and now continue through online events, across a vast array of academic and cultural disciplines.

Dr. DANIEL MATTOX

Department of French and Italian

Dr. Marisa Mazzoni

Excursionism and Darwinism on the Road to the Renaissance

Monday, 15 October, 10:30

Giacomo Saccoccia in Italian Cinema

Wednesday, 16 October, 7:30 pm

Presented by the Department of Hispanic & Italian Studies

Professor Sante Matta's scholarly interests span all periods of Italian literature, with publications consisting of 13th century Romance, 14th-15th century Gothic, and 16th century Foscato and French literature, Lineamenti di storia della letteratura italiana, Due continenti, and Africa Italia: Due continenti che si avvicinano to name just a few.

19th century literature, many authors and themes, and the scope of the papers he is presenting stand as a testimony

Lansdowne Lectures

Free and open to the public. Seating is limited. Visit our online events page for more information.

For more info: