

Elias Mandel Award for Study Abroad in The Humanities

One or more awards are available for undergraduate students who are studying abroad through courses, field schools, or programs offered or recognized by the Faculty of Humanities.

We actively encourage nominations of candidates from groups with historical and/or current barriers to equity, including, but not limited to:

First Nations, Métis and Inuit peoples, and all other Indigenous peoples;
members of groups that commonly experience discrimination due to race, ethnicity, ancestry, colour, religion and/or spiritual beliefs, or place of origin;
persons with a visible and/or invisible disability;
women; and persons of marginalized sexual orientations, gender identities, and gender expressions.

The adjudication committee must consider equity and diversity when making its deliberations. All disclosures to the committee are confidential.

ELIGIBILITY

All Humanities majors are eligible.

CRITERIA

Applications must include:

- 1) a budget and budget justification for the amount requested (maximum $6,000);
- 2) unofficial transcript;
- 3) a statement of no more than 500 words describing the purpose of the study abroad program and its relevance to the student's program of study; and
- 4) 2 letters of support from appropriate instructors familiar with the student's academic work
