

Dr. Larry Hannant
859 Maddison Street
Victoria, BC, Canada
V8S 4C3
250 208 4946
hannant@shaw.ca

ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

Adjunct Associate Professor, History, and Associate Member of the Faculty of Graduate Studies, University of Victoria, 1998 to present
Instructor, History, Camosun College, Victoria, 1997-2016
Visiting Assistant Professor and Instructor, History, University of Victoria, 1992-7 and 2003
Sessional Instructor, History in Art, University of Victoria, 1998 and 1999
Instructor, History, Malaspina University College, 1995
Limited Term Professor, History, Simon Fraser University, Burnaby, B.C., 1990-91
Instructor, History, Douglas College, New Westminster, B.C., 1989-90

- Chinese language edition (Jinan City, China: Qi Lu Publishing House, 2005)
- French language edition (Montreal:

“‘My god, are they sending women?’: Three Canadian women in the Spanish Civil War,”
 , 2004

“Norman Bethune in Spain,”

“The First of Many: Franco’s 1939 victory in the Spanish Civil War saw half a million refugees head north to France,” , January 2017

“A Quaker in the Spanish Civil War,” #56, 2 December 2016,
<https://ormsbyreview.com/2018/09/19/34476-2/>

“Why a 100-year-old pact is still hated in the Mideast,” , 9 May 2016

“Europe’s Last Battle,” , July 2015

“The Komagata Maru Incident,” , November 2014

“The Sons of Freedom Doukhobors’ Great Trek of 1962,” , February-March 2013

“Bethune controversy requires perspective,” , 22 July 2012

“He survived fire, dynamite and depredation to achieve peace among the Doukhobors;

Obituar , No08(J)-1 (ul)-12 (y)20 (2012)-110 ()TJEMC /P MCID 7 P MCID 6 BP (ong2 (s)-5)

on the Kettle Valley Line: The Death of Peter Verigin”