Their works will be set in historical perspective, and lines of influence will be explored. An attempt will be made to relate their speculations to contemporary philosophical issues.

Formal Course Requirements and Grading Procedures

There will be two examinations—a mid-term examination and a final examination—and a term paper (not to exceed 10 pages with references). The mid-term and the final examinations will be cumulative in that each will cover everything that has been studied in the course to the date of the examination. The mid-term will count for 30%, the term paper for 20% and the final examination 50% of the course grade. Students who have taken the mid-term examination may ask the mid-term examination grade to be disregarded and make the final examination the final examination count for 80% of their course grade. Exceptions from course requirements, adjustments for taking examinations at set examination dates, etc. will only be made in accordance with UVic regulations as published in the Calendar. It is the responsibility of the students to acquaint themselves and significant others with this fact so that vacations, family reunions, weddings etc. can be planned accordingly. The mid-term examination will be returned as soon as it is graded. Final examinations are the property of the University and will not be returned. They are available for viewing at the Records Office at a time designated by the University. Term papers will be available from the instructor one week after they have been handed in.
