

DIANA NETHERCOTT

EDGE

Adults aged 65 and older account for 35 per cent of the three million discharges from Canadian hospitals, 52 per cent of the 21 million patient days and nearly one-third of diagnostic and surgical procedures performed in hospitals.

