Gifford is founding director of a new interdisciplinary program at UVic that focuses on the human dimensions of climate change. The program, which begins in January, will give students an understanding of the multidisciplinary aspects of climate change.

Major funding for Gifford's work comes from the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada, the Canada Mortgage and Housing Corporation, the Canadian Space Agency and others.

The latest ranking by ReSearch Infosource places UVic in the elite "$100-million club" of
