The Academic Services team works with circumstances which often involves confidential student information. The concession offered one student may not look the same as that offered to another student. It is not helpful to compare yourself to others.

Criteria for determining

- c. To secure a concession, students must provide, in advance, to the Coordinator, Academic Services list of the dates, Ÿ u • v o } Ÿ } v • } (] v š OE Á] Á • } OE } u % v } } š Z OE % OE } } (Á] o o v • • OE Ç X

- i. Students must try to avoid or minimize the cost of interviews to the institution when they are interviewing prospective students. The cost of interviews includes travel expenses, accommodation, meals, and other expenses related to the interview process.

ii. If a student has been interviewed by one institution, they may request to be interviewed by another institution. In accordance with the principles of interviews, the student may request to be interviewed by another institution.

- a. As soon as the student has confirmed interviews and knows that there will be a conflict on a specific date, the student should email Coordinator, Academic Services at lawcaa@uvic.ca to outline the conflict and request an academic concession.
