

When to Use this Form

Form P2 is used any time a spouse's share of the benefits remains in the plan/annuity to be administered. The spouse becomes a kind of member/annuitant, with respect to the benefits, called a "limited member" and is entitled

- payments under a pension that has commenced,
- benefits under a defined benefit provision before pension commencement,
- disability benefits under a plan,
- annuity payments,
- benefits that are subject to an original order or agreement made before Part 6 of the Family Law Act force, and
- benefits in a defined contribution account, if the administrator consents to the to the w /

