Course Challenge Regulations

NOTE: Course Challenge is offered by all departments.

Course Challenge is intended to allow a registered (excluding unclassified / no degree status) undergraduate student to seek credit in a given undergraduate course on the basis of knowledge or experience acquired outside the university. It involves undertaking a special examination or other form of assessment administered by the relevant department, division, or school at time determined in consultation with the student.

Where Course Challenge is permitted, it is subject to the following restrictions:

- (a) Course Challenge examination/evaluation normally must be completed before the end of the period for adding courses
