

2024/2025 WORK STUDY PROGRAM

JOB POSTING

The Historical Injustices and Current Realities (HICR) research cluster consists of a group of researchers exploring and examining the history of UVic as we approach the 60 th anniversary of the University and the 120 years since the establishment of Victoria College. We are gathering stories, memories, and knowledges that address Indigenous relationships to this place, colonialism in the past and present, and important aspects of gender, class, race, and decolonization to critically extend previous work on the history of UVic.

RA responsibilities may include:

- Undertaking library research to identify relevant:
  - x academic sources; and
  - x Master's theses and Doctoral dissertations in the UVic dSpace collection
  - x Materials in UVic Special Collections and Archives
- Corresponding with faculty and staff at UVic
- Participating in interviews of UVic and community
