iden if

Students come to a learning situation with previous experience—prior knowledge and skills, assumptions and beliefs. Learning situations help students re ect in this legacy by providing opportunity to assess what hey believe or know. These re ective activities serve o engage students and encourage them to share their urrent ideas.

in e jiga e

Learning requires students to observer