

FREE PUBLIC LECTURE

Lerato Legoabe,
Coordinator of GirlsNet,
South Africa

www.womensnet.org.za

Empowerment of Girls and Young Women in South Africa: Current Issues and Reflections

October 23, 2006

12:00 pm - 1:30 pm

Fraser Building, Room 142

University of Victoria

No registration required

Lerato works on issues of girls and youth empowerment, with a particular focus on access to information technology. She will be speaking about her work in South Africa on girls' empowerment and HIV/AIDS, in a country with both the highest rates of HIV/AIDS and the highest levels of rape and sexual violence against girls in the world. She will be in Canada as a speaker at the SOLID conference on HIV/AIDS on Salt Spring Island (www.solidssaltspring.org).

For further information please contact iwrp@uvic.ca.

