

“What Words Will You Leave to Guide Them?”

Honorary Degree Comments & Convocation Quoem by Lynn Conway
University of Victoria, November 9, 2016

Madam Chancellor, Leaders and Faculty of the University of Victoria, what a joy it is to join you, on this special ground, at this great university.

I am deeply moved to receive this honor, and in turn, to help you honor and celebrate all the young people receiving degrees here this day.

And on nearing Remembrance Day, I’m reminded how appropriate it would be to envision our futures through the words of earlier pathfinders.
