In the last three publications, readers travelled to Spain with , cruised the Rhine River with , and boarded an expedition catamaran, with , to take a nature cruise through the North End of Vancouver Island.

We learned about what is going on in a Karate study held at UVic, through the , one of the participants. eyes of articles. discussed the , in his long term and the immediate effects of exercising and offered tips on maximizing

, in his articles, expertly informed us about cloud computing and storage, using WiFi in public places and when travelling, banking online, and how to prepare for the demise of Window 7.

Our newly launched published an article sent to us by about her deceased husband Gordon, a biology professor whose UVic affiliation began in 1940 at Victoria College. And, informed us about his recent publications on cricket in Vancouver Island. In , John provides the story of cricket on our island for the past 150+ years.

indispensable proofreader, is responsible for assuring an error-free newsletter.

UVRA needs more

L