

Sexualized Violence Prevention and Response Policy (2014-2015 – the “Policy”):

Understanding the Sexualized Violence Investigation Process

Transparency is an important part of fostering an environment where students and those impacted by sexualized violence feel safe reporting sexualized violence. The University is committed to supporting survivors and those impacted by sexualized violence while instituting fair and unbiased response processes. See this video.

Sexualized violence resource office in EQHR
SVPCOORDINATOR@UVIC.CA 250 721 8021

