

418 Term Project

The goal of the term project is to provide students with an opportunity to apply advanced spatial analysis techniques (learned in the course) to a research question of their choice. In total, the term project is worth 50% of your mark.