Learning Goals and Outcomes for this course

Know why human geography is important and how human geographers can make a difference. This means being able to explain to others why “scale,” “place” and “environments” really matter to people and being able to give real world examples to support your points.

Build a strong knowledge foundation on which you can rely for success in future geography courses or wherever your related interests may take you. This means learning about some of the most important ideas, techniques, concepts and questions in human geography and knowing when and how to use them appropriately. It also means developing an appreciation of the breadth and depth of

- they relate to it (even if not mentioned specifically)?
- iii. What question does the piece raise for you? Please explain and support your answer with evidence/data

REQUIRED COURSE READINGS:

Fouberg, Erin, H. et al, 2015. Human Geography: People, Place and Culture: Second Canadian Edition. Mississauga, ON: John Wiley & Sons Canada, Ltd. This text is available at the bookstore. There should be three options: e-text, shrink wrapped for binder, and hardback. E-text is cheapest.

Important note: It is fine for you to use the first edition of the same textbook (2012) if you have access to one and it saves you money. I will refer to both sets of pages in my session outlines in order to accommodate those using either version.

Globe and Mail (or other major national newspaper). The G&M does have discounts for students, you can get it online and you only need to do so once per week to have enough material for the activities in the course. Monthly should be around $10 a month subscription for three months of the course at the student rate (Saturdays only). You are welcome to share with friends (just pick different parts to use).
