

community. Students are advised to consult the X Q L Y H Policy on Academic Integrity in the University Calendar.

The Instructor reserves the right to use plagiarism detection software programs, web searches, discussions with other instructors, or other methods to investigate evidence of plagiarism in all submitted materials.

The University of Victoria is committed to promoting, providing and

	Topics	Assignments Due (Journals due by 5 PM Thursday)
Week 1 - January 8	Introduction: Objectives, Conceptual Frameworks and Governance and the Elements of Decision Making	Journal Entry #1
Week 2 - January 15	Sustainability Indicators: How do we know what we know and how do we construct and communicate information for decision making?	Journal Entry #2
Week 3 - January 22	Normative Decision Making: Statutory Decision Making Case Study of the BC Land Act (guest lecture and workshop with Jamie Alley)	Journal Entry #3

