

Midterm Exam (October 22nd in class)
 Laboratory Assignments x 7
 Final Exam (During Exam period)

Students have in the past found that some of the lab assignments can be time-consuming and challenging. We are here to help with this – Please make sure you schedule your time effectively. The Labs are two hours. Please plan to be there for the entire lab time. The labs materials are designed to be both _____ and _____ to the lectures. Slides are _____ designed to replace attendance in class or lab.

No audio or video recordings are permitted unless approved in writing (in advance) by the course instructor.

The questions for the midterm exam and final exam will be based on lectures, labs, posted learning resources and class discussion. The final exam is comprehensive. Formats includes a combination of short-answer, calculations, and multiple-choice questions.

As per the Academic Calendar:

	9 8 7	90-100% 85-89% 80-84%	An A+, A, or A- is earned by work which is technically superior, shows mastery of the subject matter, and in the case of an A+ offers original insight and/or goes beyond course expectations. Normally achieved by a minority of students.
	6 5 4	77-79% 73-76% 70-72%	A B+, B, or B- is earned by work that indicates a good comprehension of the course material, a good command of the skills needed to work with the course material, and the student's full engagement with the course requirements and activities. A B+ represents a more complex understanding and/or application of the course material. Normally achieved by the largest number of students.
	3 2	65-69% 60-64%	A C+ or C is earned by work that indicates an adequate comprehension of the course material and the skills needed to work with the course material and that indicates the student has met the basic requirements for completing assigned work and/or participating in class activities.
	1	50-59%	A D is earned by work that indicates minimal command of the course materials and/or minimal participation in class activities that is worthy of course credit toward the degree.
	0	0-49%	F is earned by work, which after the completion of course requirements, is inadequate and unworthy of course credit towards the degree.
	0	0-49%	Did not write examination or complete course requirements by the end of term or session; no supplemental.

A high level of student cooperation and participation, involving asking and answering questions is expected. Students are expected to attend all lectures, take notes and be punctual for class.

Cell phones and portable music players must be _____ during lectures and labs.

Topic handouts based on lecture presentations will be provided before the beginning of class meetings on CourseSpaces. These handouts will be removed _____ after the posting date. Students are responsible for downloading/saving and completing notes packages.

. Failure to complete any evaluation

Academic dishonesty (plagiarism, cheating) is a very serious matter in any academic institution and is dealt with severely at the University of Victoria. Instructors and academic units have the responsibility to ensure that standards of academic honesty are met. By doing so, the institution recognizes students for their hard work and assures them that other students do not have an unfair advantage through cheating on essays, exams, and projects.
