

OneidaField SchoolJuly 8<sup>d</sup> – 15th, 2024 Colonial Impacts on Environmental Management

University of VictoriaDepartment of Geography Oneida Nation of the Thames

GeneralInformation

Are you interested in immersing yourself in an intensive, experiential; biasted and culturally grounded field school in Southwestern Ontario The Oneida Field School (Indigenous Knowledge, Mapping, and Environmental Stewardship) based the Oneida Territory, where students will camp around the nation's Longho Lise class runs from July 1-15th, 2024 The class is offered in partnership with to eneida Nation order to both map and outline strategies increasing food security and food sovereignty for the nation, as well as addressing the colonial impacts to the environment for Oneida.