Preamble

The University of Victoria's Field Schools are an exceptional opportunity, but they are not without certain risks, dangers and hazards to all Participants. These include, but are not limited to: delay or inconvenience, program cancellation or curtailment, increased risk to health, the loss of personal property, injury and even death.

All persons taking part in the Program are required to accept these and other risks as a condition of their participation. The University of Victoria will not accept any liability for injury, loss, damage or expense sustained as a result of any person's participation in the Program.

The Statement of Risks set forth below is intended to enable Participants to better understand and accept the various risks involved in the Program. All Program applicants will be required to sign the Release of Liability, Waiver of Claims, Assumption of Risks, and Indemnity Agreement set forth below, which will release the University of Victoria and each of its governors, officers, agents, employees, students, contractors, subcontractors, representatives, successors and assigns (collectively referred to as the "Releasees"), from any claims which might arise as a result of the applicant's participation in the Program.

Statement of Risks

The Program involves the risks inherent in travel, international or otherwise. These include, but are not limited to: poor road and transportation systems, limited or poor access to health care professionals or facilities, exposure to wildlife, exposure to tropical/foreign diseases, and standards of criminal justice which may vary from Canadian standards, and/or risks of terrorism – all of which may result in increased risks to the Participant’s health, damage to or loss of the Participant’s property, injury of the Participant, or even death.

Participants in the Program may be using the services of independent travel agents and airlines. The Releasees do not accept responsibility for the conduct of these independent agencies. It is always possible that the Program may not be completed or individual activities may be curtailed or cancelled. Reasons for curtailment or cancellation may include, but are not limited to: weather, illness, political disturbances, civil unrest, war, transportation problems, failure to perform on the part of travel agents or airlines, problems relating to customs, natural disaster, and/or other circumstances beyond the control of the Releasees.

It is the responsibility of each Participant in the Program to learn as much as possible about the risks of the venture, to weigh those risks against the advantages, and to decide whether or not to participate.

The Releasees accept no responsibility and assume no liability with respect to any academic, vocational, medical, or financial advice received by a Participant concerning the field school.
