

Preparing to Defend your Thesis or Dissertation

This document is to be used as a guide. There may be additional tasks/forms required, it is the duty to ensure all forms and procedures are followed. In order to meet these deadlines, please be aware of the following required steps and timelines; you should count on the defense process taking approximately two (2) months:

- (1) Consult the Faculty of Graduate Studies website (Resources) for guidance on preparing your thesis/dissertation.
- (2) First, your supervisor must confirm with you that your thesis is ready to be submitted to your committee for review (it will have already gone through a series of revisions before you submit it to your committee).
- (3) Your committee requires at least two weeks to read your final thesis (be sure to also allow for sufficient time to make further revisions).
- (4) In consultation with your supervisor, an external examiner (EE) is selected (MSc: within UVic but outside of Psychology; PhD: outside of UVic); it is your supervisor's role to contact the EE.
- (5) The student and the committee will decide on a date for the oral that is convenient for everyone (including the External Examiner) that is at least 4 to 6 weeks in the future. Department or Graduate Secretary can assist with booking a room.
- (6) Once your committee has agreed that your thesis or dissertation is "ready to defend", you will attain the signatures of the committee and the Graduate Advisor on the Request for Oral Examination. ROE - doctoral or ROE - Masters
- (7) Make an appointment (this must be 5 days in advance of the 20/30 business days deadline)

- (11) Once you have successfully defended your thesis, you should allow for at least two weeks for revisions and final approval from your supervisor and/or committee (therefore, plan to defend by mid-April if you want to complete your degree in the spring term, by mid-August if you want to complete your degree in the summer term and by mid-December if you want to complete your degree in the fall term.
- (12) When all revisions are complete you need to upload your final thesis/dissertation to UVicSpace and the Graduate Secretary will send the following forms to GARO electronically
- a. the letter recommending your graduation (signed by your supervisor and department chair)
 - b. thesis/dissertation approval form
- (13) The next deadlines for meeting all degree requirements are 3:00 p.m. January 3, 2023 for fall term (spring 2023 graduation), 3:00 p.m. April 28, 2023 (for spring 2023 graduation) and 3:00 p.m. August 31, 2023 (for fall 2023 graduation). Please note: Graduate Studies allows no exceptions. This means that you must complete your thesis, have your final oral defence, complete revisions and submit a copy of your final version of your thesis along with the necessary accompanying documents to GARO by this deadline.

Spring Graduation:

If you are defending in the fall term:

Meeting the January 3rd deadline means that your program will be considered complete as of the end of the Fall term and you will not have to register or pay fees for the Spring term (unless you plan to enter the PhD program in January). You have to apply to graduate by November 15 in order to be eligible for the spring convocation in June.

In order to meet the January 3, 2023 deadline, here is the suggested timeline:

Final draft of your thesis/dissertation to your committee:

MSc: end of October/start of November

PhD: mid-October
