

Dhruv, a 21-year-old student at the University of Victoria, is in his fourth year pursuing a Bachelor of Science in Biology. His academic journey has shaped him into an individual driven by critical thinking, dedication, and a passion for positive change. Aspiring to attend medical school and become a doctor, Dhruv understands the importance of perseverance, leadership, and service—qualities that make him an exceptional candidate for this election.

In addition to his studies, Dhruv works part-time as a pharmacy assistant, where he delivers medications to homeless shelters and people. He also directly supports healthcare professionals and gains valuable experience in communication, and patient care. His previous work in construction honed his ability to work under pressure, work as a team, and tackle challenges with determination and resilience. Dhruv also volunteers at the Victoria General hospital where he works in a fast-track program for the Bioasthospiobler a fs aaé w) 3e w) 3er aa(dr) 6e13e with meaningful professional experiences. He believes in building a future that prioritizes the well-being of others, and his leadership style focuses on inclusivity, teamwork, and integrity. Dhruv's passion for making a difference extends beyond his career goals—he actively engages with his peers, values the importance of strong family connections, and spends his time playing sports and fostering relationships with friends.

Dhruv is dedicated to working hard for the betterment of his community, using his skills and experiences to make his community a more inclusive and productive environment. His background in healthcare, coupled with his hands-on approach to leadership, uniquely qualifies him to represent the voices of his peers and bring positive change to the community.